About Me

I am a 24 year old travel addict and wheelchair user, hoping to inspire others to start rolling around the world. I'm on a mission to prove that traveling is possible for anyone, regardless of abilities.

Benefits of Partnering

Curb Free with Cory Lee not only directly appeals to a profitable, directly influencable audience of people who already travel—but also inspires readers to travel for the first time who otherwise may not have.

What does this mean for your business? It means these people come to the site for their travel recommendations, tips and advice. Not only that, but they trust the opinions on the website. This leaves an audience that is looking for your services: Readers specifically targeted for maximum return on your investment. Want to see just how many people you can reach?
